Product Description

OMNi BiOTiC Hetox Light Ecologic+ Hranitelna Dobavka (Diet Management & Metabolic Syndrome Dietary Supplement) is now available. The product is suitable for metabolic disorders and liver health problems, and contains nine specially selected bacterial strains that can be naturally found in gut flora, and highly active liver symbiotic. Thanks to the eight bacterial strains blend, it is said to reduce the waist circumference and visceral fat; and to contribute to healthy levels of blood sugar and insulin resistance. The lyophilised bacteria is activated by the prebiotics matrix enriched with enzymes and minerals. The product is free from animal protein, gluten, yeast and lactose, and is suitable for diabetics, vegans and the lactose intolerant. This scientifically proven and ecological dietary supplement retails in a 90g pack containing 30 x 1 g individual sachets.
