

DIVERSITY IN HUMAN DIVERSITY

WHEN

August 21st 2023
11am – 5pm

WHERE

Arcanum & Zoom

(Lecture hall and zoom link to those registered)

Arcanuminkuja 1, 20500 Turku

Registration open 7-13 August:

<https://link.webropolsurveys.com/S/594F8A45E41F0D2C>

WHAT TO EXPECT

Session 1: Computational approaches to linguistics

Panel discussion: Current research topics in digital humanities

Session 2: Keynote

<https://sites.utu.fi/humandiversity/events/diversity-in-human-diversity-minisymbosium/>

SESSION 1:

Tanja Säily

"A large-scale analysis of the use of Scotticisms in the eighteenth century"

Timo Korkiakangas

"How was Latin learnt in the Middle Ages? A diachronic corpus-based study of medieval Latin literacies"

PANEL:

Mikko Tolonen

"The Relevance of High Performance Computing for Intellectual History"

Heikki Rantala

"Searching and visualizing the plenary speeches of the Parliament of Finland"

Jenni Santaharju

"Linguistic diversity revealing our population history"

SESSION 2:

Mikko Laitinen

"Novel computational methods and social networks"