

MONITIETEINEN IHMISEN MONIMUOTOISUUS ESITELMÄSARJA INTERDISCIPLINARY HUMAN DIVERSITY SEMINAR SERIES

Digital linguistics targeting Human Diversity through Contacts

Thursday 21 May 2026

Time: 13:45–14:15 coffee served; 14:15–15:15 presentations

Location: Tauno Nurmela Hall, Main Building, Zoom webinar

Please sign up here to ensure your coffee by 17 May

This seminar consists of two talks in digital linguistics. First, Nathan Dykes, who will be joining our team in September, presents his current work. The second part presents the previous and ongoing projects in TurkuNLP on multilingual registers, and how we plan to continue and elaborate this in the Centre of Excellence.

Nathan Dykes

(Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, Germany):

Corpus approaches to operationalising elusive discourse phenomena

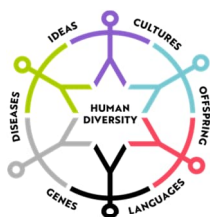

TurkuNLP:

From register variation on the multilingual web to human diversity through contacts – previous, current and future work

TURKUNLP
.ORG

Earn credits: HuDi0001 course (2 ECTS)

More information: humandiversity.fi

UNIVERSITY OF TURKU

CENTRES OF EXCELLENCE
IN RESEARCH

Suomen Akatemia
Finlands Akademi
Research Council of Finland