Exceptions to data subject rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulation and the Finnish Data Protection Act, certain exceptions to the rights of data subjects can be made when personal data is processed in scientific research and fulfilling the rights would render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of the processing (in this case, scientific research).

The need to make exceptions to the rights of data subjects will always be assessed on a case by case basis. It is likely that exceptions to the following rights will be necessary in this study:

- Right of access (GDPR Article 15)
 Right to rectification (GDPR Article 16)
 Right to erasure (GDPR Article 17)
 Right to restriction of processing (GDPR Article 18)
 Right to data portability (GDPR Article 20)
 Right to object (GDPR Article 21)

Reasons and the extend for the exceptions: No foreseeable reasons for exceptions.

Right to lodge a complaint

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Ombudsman if you think your personal data has been processed in violation of applicable data protection laws.
