

Symposia
The school student movement in Finland and Sweden: transnational and comparative perspectives

October 28, 10AM–17 AM, Room 2403, Department of Education, Stockholm University

Victor Johansson: In the interest of pupils: The emergence of national school student federations in Sweden 1938-1952

Daniel Lövheim: A National School Student Press in Sweden: Perspectives from the late 1950s and early 1960s

Joakim Landahl: The victory of the victims: SECO and the pupil takeover during the 1966 teacher strike

Björn Lundberg: Operation Day's Work: Education and Global Activism in 1960s Sweden

Ville Soimetsä: Passion and Politics in the Finnish School Student Movement, 1960s to 1980s

Essi Jouhki & Liisa Lulu: "Yes We Can!": Girls and Young Women in the Finnish School Student Movement

Ville Okkonen: Ideals and Threats from Sweden: How the Neighbour was Interpreted by the Finnish School Movement and the Conservatives

Kimmo Rentola: Different Consequences of 1968 in Finland and Sweden

Janne Holmén: Concluding comments